WORKING IN THE MIDDLE IS TOUGH.

Your boss has priorities. Your direct reports have questions. Peers and colleagues ask you for help and toss extra projects your way. It’s complicated—we know. But the reality is that middle managers are often the glue that holds organizations together. So how do you juggle the power struggles and get your work done?

That’s where we come in. The longest-running program of its kind, our Leadership Development Program (LDP)® is designed specifically for leaders of managers. In other words, those navigating the in-between. Through experiential practice in a dynamic, peer-based learning environment, you’ll strengthen your ability to manage complexity; balance competing priorities; and collaborate up, down, and across the organization to drive tangible results.
